No More Wars for Israel Conference Now Available

High-quality audio/DVD collection captures important lectures for posterity

By Michael Collins Piper

America is on the verge of another war for Israel—this time against Iran. And even as AFP revealed (Aug. 28, 2008), the Georgian aggression against South Ossetia that resulted in a strong defense of the Ossetian people by Russian leader Vladimir Putin can also be traced to the intrigues of Israel: at least two high-ranking Georgian officials are also citizens of Israel, which has been providing military and intelligence support to Georgia. But joint U.S.-Israeli operations against Iran are currently under way and have been for some time. That's why, in October of 2007, a group of U.S. nationalists organized the "No More Wars for Israel Conference" held in California.

AFP readers may recall that the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) of B'nai B'rith—an intelligence and propaganda arm of Israel's clandestine services agency, the Mossad—worked to scuttle the event, using heavy-handed pressure against the Marriott Hotel, ordering the hotel's management to cancel the conference, even as attendees were arriving.

Despite the trouble, conference organizers—including California nationalist Joe Fields and AFP correspondent Mark Glenn—managed to rally the attendees and the conference convened elsewhere.

The whole sordid story of the affair was outlined in AFP at the time and was widely discussed on the Internet as a perfect example of the crimes of the self-appointed "thought police" on American soil.

Now, the full video (and audio) record of the "No More Wars for Israel Conference" is available—an extraordinary 22 hours featuring 21 speakers addressing various aspects of the problem of Zionist influence on American political life. You can obtain the whole conference on either DVD or audio cassette or order individual videos or audios as you prefer. The topics covered are extensive.

Series No. 1 features Mike Piper, along with Mark Glenn, who provided the opening address. Other topics on this series:

• The fallacies of so-called Christian Zionism, with Charles Carlson;

• The campaign for justice for Israeli whistleblower Mordechai Vanunu, with Eileen Fleming;

• Contrasting the hatred for Jesus Christ expressed in the Talmud versus the respect and honor that Muslims have for Christ, with Dr. Kaukab Siddique;

• The plight of the Palestinian people (and more on Vanunu), with Wendy Campbell.

Series No. 2 opens up with the keynote address by Dr. Hesham Tillawi, followed with reflections by USS Liberty survivor Phil Tourney, describing the horrible events of Israel's attack on the American vessel. Professor Ray Goodwin wraps up with a fascinating discussion of media lies and the use of semantics to spread disinformation.

Series No. 3 is especially controversial, featuring famed international revisionist ambassador Dr. Fredrick Toben (who spent six months in jail in Germany for daring to discuss details of the "Holocaust" that contradict the official version of World War II history), Paul Fromm, the Canadian free speech advocate, who discussed the use of the Internet to overcome mass media brainwashing, and Father Christopher Hunter baring the lie of the theme of "Judeo-Christian tradition."

Dr. Fredrick Toben: "No More Wars for Israel, Pt 1
(See also Part 2, Part 3, Part 4, Part 5, Part 6, Part 7, Part 8, Part 9, Part 10, and Part 11)

Series No. 4 brings on spunky black nationalist Dr. Robert Brock answering the question: "Who brought the slaves to America." Respected Internet blogger Patrick Grimm follows with a discussion of "What is extremism?" South African native Deirdre Fields fills in the gaps of history explaining the role of the Rothschild empire in intrigues in South Africa and Israel.

Series No. 5—the "all ladies" tape—features Polish anti-communist Danuta Becker explaining the little known (but extensive) role by Jewish figures in Bolshevism and the butchery of millions of Christians in Eastern Europe. She is joined by Ellen Mariani, the gutsy widow of 9-11 victim Neal Mariani, who describes her efforts to find out the truth about 9-11, and scholar Margaret Huffstickler, who explodes many media lies about the history of the Third Reich.

Margaret Huffstickler: "WW2 & Current Wars for Israel, Pt 1
(See also Part 2, Part 3, and Part 4)

Series No. 6 opens with a dynamic exposition by John Nugent of the right of all peoples to have their own homelands, Stan Hess calling for European-Americans to demand respect for their cultural identity and Joe Fields, wrapping up the conference saying, "It's time to fight."

John de Nugent: "Let My People Go!" Part 1
(See also Part 2, and Part 3)

Stan Hess: "We Demand Respect for Our Identity" Part 1
(See also Part 2)

Joe Fields: "Take Action" Part 1. See also Part 2.

The whole set is available on six DVDs for $100 or six audio cassettes for $50. Individual DVDs and audio cassettes (of the six different series described above) are also available, at $25 each for the DVDs and $12 each for the audio cassettes.
